Meow! I am the one cat who truly owns Lynea. Many kind Cat People are asking about our needs, so I thought I would give you a tour. First and foremost we need high quality food. We have plenty of food for the itty bitty kitties, but we could use high quality kitten food for the older munchkins and 20 pound bags or larger of cat and dog food. If you are feeling rich, you can buy a case of 13 ounce Holistic canned food. Yum! Yummy! Yum!

Other items on our list are new computers, large monitors, wireless keyboards and color printer cartridges (HP564 tri-color, HP564 black (not photo black), HP60 Color, HP60 Black). We felines try to stay on top of technology. Hehehe.

In case you haven't noticed, kitties are comfort-seeking creatures. We could use cat and dog hammocks, oil filled radiator electrical heaters for the cold times, fans and misters for the hot times, and window air condition units for the Valley days. It sure gets hot in the central California valley in the summer time and we are heat seeking missiles in the winter.

Did I mention that we could use a pallet of food? This army of furballs runs on its stomach. Did I hear the dinner bell or was that my stomach talking to me? Your cash donations are the best. Gift cards make us roll over with delight.

We thank you generous folks for the toys that you have sent, but we really have our hearts set on upgrades for our housing. The baseboards are breaking down, the windows break, and the floors have seen better days. We could use linoleum flooring, repaired windows and screens, and replaced baseboards. I have no scratching idea how these things get damaged, but gift cards from a hardware store would be a cat's dream.

We kitties like bright sunny rooms, so we could use paint, rollers, brushes and painters tape. Anyone out there who loves to paint for kitty love? We have lots of high quality kitty love here, like no other place on earth.

We send kitty love (times 1,000). We are so appreciative when you think of us.

Meow! That is like Aloha in kitty talk. It means hello, goodbye and thank you all in one universal word. Peace out from Daphne.

Furball Confession, this washer is clogged and we sure could use more washers and dryers.

"I Disavow any information about screen damage".
